Oh, give thanks to the Lord

Oh, give thanks to the Lord, for He is good! For His mercy endures forever. Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, Whom He has redeemed from the hand of the enemy, And gathered out of the lands, from the east and from the west, From the north and from the south.

Thank you Lord for all you have done, do, and will do for us. I pray that in the following months that I thank the Lord more than I grumble and complain. I pray for a thankful heart. For all that Christ has done for me, leaving me no room to grumble or complain.

I thank Him for each one of you, for your prayers and support. It is what keeps us on moving forward.

I thank Him for the ministry that he has given us here in Romania working with the children.

I thank Him for those he places in our lives. With God there are no coincidences, God has a purpose behind everything. Growing us and teaching us to grow closer to Him.

Austria

The month of June brought more than one excursion. Because we had more than one trip outside of the country of Romania this year, only Chris took a trip to Austria to meet with the Europe missionaries and Pastor Bob Caldwell. After a tiring twenty one hour drive and a good nap we met together for prayer and worship.

We all had a wonderful time of fellowship and worship. One plus was the beautiful scenery that came with the drive and castle in Millstatt, Austria.

Vajta, Hungary (Foundations Conference 2009)

Ask of me and I will give you the nations— Psalms 2:8

This was the theme of the conference.

It is always a joy and a pleasure to come to this conference. We are refreshed spiritually from God's word, physically during downtime at the pool, and from the awesome coffee bar. (Caramel Macchiato is the bomb!!)

The four main speakers this year were Pastor Phil Twente from Costa Mesa, Pastor Paul Billings from Kyrgyzstan, Pastor Pete Nelson from Colorado, and Pastor Bill Goodrich from Indiana.

Each of the messages were encouraging as well as convicting.

On the drive home we were able to stop and see some friends from Hungary that did not come to the Conference. We had a wonderful time visiting the Mcguires in Vac (pronounced vats), Hungary.

The trip home was a bit rough since Mihai threw up all over himself and had to be changed on the side of the road. Chloe waited until we were an hour and a half away, as well as stopping at a gas station to vomit. Such a good girl!

Boise Team

A team from Boise came to Bistrita for a day and a half. Cleaning,, weeding, painting, playing with the family center kids, dramas, and a rap song was performed for the kids. The children loved the attention and the time that was spent ministering to them.

Black Sea!

We have been in Romania for almost two and a half years, and just took our first trip to the Black Sea. We went camping at a nice family camp ground where we met up with about thirty other people from Calvary Chapels around Romania, who were also taking a family vacation. We had a blast sleeping in the tent, it was Sebi and Mihai's first time sleeping in a tent. We were encouraged each morning and night as we worshipped the Lord and heard devotions and testimonies of what the Lord was doing around Romania and in each of our lives.

Girls Night Out!

You have read about a couple of girls nights out, as we try to have them periodically with the family centre girls. This time thought was something special, and was not just for the family center girls, but girls in the church, as well as for some of the community girls that Natalie (another missionary lady) works with. We started off the night with the girls being escorted into the church, where they sat down to a nice dinner with fine china and all! We were all dressed up in dresses or skirts.

After dinner we played some really fun games like spin the fingernail polish, and all of us went home with multi colored fingernails. Then we were more serious as Cynthia Fouts did an amazing job teaching about purity and presenting the gospel. The girls were asked to take a stand to stay pure and wait for the husband God has for them. To remind them of this stand they were each given a purity ring. It was a great evening and I believed it really made the girls face some issues and realize God's love for them.

-Phil. 4:8

Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy— meditate on these things.

A Personal Testimony (Part 1)

Life gets hectic, even in the life of a missionary. It seems that you are constantly on the go, and as a wife and mother, you are constantly pouring your life into other people's lives— the lives of your family, and the lives of people in the ministry. The last couple months have been very busy with lots of traveling, schedules keep getting changed, running into new people, going to lots of conference sessions, and not having a computer to talk to our state side family and friends. Yet God is teaching me and teaching me. A few things I have been reminded of and taught the last couple months is that we need to be fully covered with the armor of God. To remind yourself of this read Ephesians 6:20. You cannot be fully equipped with the whole armor of God if you are not constantly in the Word, in prayer, and in fellowship with the Savior Jesus Christ. So often we get caught up in the things of this world and lose sight of the eternal things that are really important. Satan is constantly throwing his fiery darts at us, and so often we don't even realize it. I could probably share forever what the Lord has been teaching me, and how my heart has been shaken over the last year, but needless to say there is not enough room for that.

"...and as a wife and mother, you are constantly pouring your life into other people's lives-

A Personal Testimony (Part2)

So to make it a little shorter I will just say that I have come to a place in my life where I have realized and want to be totally satisfied with God alone. I encourage you to search your hearts as well and ask yourself "are you completely satisfied in Christ alone? Is He really enough for you, or do you have some buts + ands after Him?" spend time in the Word, seek God's face, search the scriptures, learn them, know them, write them on your heart, rightly divide the word of truth (2Tim. 2:15) and ask the Lord to help you become completely satisfied with the Lord Almighty, who loves you and has saved you .

Satisfaction means that which completely fulfills.

Psalms 107:9-

For He satisfies the longing soul, and fills the hungry soul with goodness.

Bistrita Days (Zilele de Bistritei)

For seven hundred and forty a open fire.

five years, Bistrita has been a city worth celebrating,- at least the city uses this for an excuse to put on a celebration.

Even talent shows showing off the traditional Romanian dances

From bumper cars, to slow train rides, to the newer simulator rollercoaster to a modern day beauty contest gaps the generations.

rides- there are rides for all ages. The food can almost be compared to fare food, maybe a little better.

It is all fun and games for a whole weekend celebrating the city

From boiled or roasted corn-on-the-cob, to a scured cow for showarmas and kebobs to chicken roasting on of Bistrita.
